Ten 30-Year Members to Be Honored Thursday

Columbiana Kiwanis Plans Charter Night

COLUMBIANA — The Columbiana Kiwanis Club will celebrate its 30th anniversary with a Ladies Night dinner Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at Joshua Dixon School.

Dr. Harold R. Carbin of Toledo, Ohio District Kiwanis

governor, will be the principal speaker.

Kiwanians from other clubs in the district are expected to attend.

Robert Arrives In Indonesia

Soldiers Erase Anti-U. S. Slogans

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy arrived in Indonesia today for a six-day visit. Before his arrival soldiers scratched off anti-American slogans crudely painted along his route into the capital.

The airliner that brought Kennedy and his wife, Ethel, touched down at the Jakarta airport three hours late. Indonesian Atty. Gen. Gunawan, who had invited Kennedy to visit the Socialist island republic, led the welcoming party.

Kennedy and his wife had flown from Hong Kong to Singapore, and they used their unexpected stopover there for a fast sight-seeing drive about the British Commonwealth island.

Indonesian youths painted signs saying "Kennedy go home" and "United States no, Indonesia yes" on walls and buildings. They also handed out posters and leaflets.

Told of the signs during his stop at Singapore, Kennedy said smiling.

Youngstown Crash Injures Alexander

John (Jack) Alexander, Jr., 23, of 189 W. Wilson St., Salem Junior High School mathematics teacher and basketball coach, is in satisfactory condition at Youngstown St. Elizabeth Hospital with injuries suffered in what police described as a violent auto collision at the intersection of Madison Ave. and Foster St. in Youngstown at 2:05 a.m. Sunday.

Two Youngstown men riding in one of the other three cars involved were also hurt, neither seriously.

Alexander suffered a laceration of the scalp and possible fractured ribs.

Mark Miles received a laceration over the right eye and Ralph Williams suffered lacerations of the scalp and abrasions of the left knee. Both were passengers in a car driven by James Griffin, 19, of Youngstown.

Griffin was cited for reckless operation and Alexander for failure to yield the right of way.

Youngstown police said Alexander pulled into the intersection into the path of Griffin who had the right of way but was traveling at a high rate of speed after the collision, both vehicles spun into parked cars.

Alexander's 1960 Valiant was a total wreck, while the other three cars received extensive damage. Police said the injuries were slight, considering the violence of the crash.

Deluge Continues for Sixth Day

20 Deaths Blamed On California Rain

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California's sixth day of saturation started spectacularly today as cloudbursts opened up on parts of the Los Angeles area, creating lakes up to seven feet deep.

There were flash floods in the Hollywood Hills and a house at 2934 Beachwood Dr. was torn loose from its foundation and pushed into the street.

Storm drain covers were popping open from excessive pressure in many parts of the city.

A woman at 6456 Deep Dell Place in the Hollywood Hills reported water was rushing through her living room.

At the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Pacific Coast Highway early this morning the water was seven feet deep.

It was four feet deep on Vermont Avenue between 88th and 90th streets in Los Angeles. It was over the rooftops of automobiles at some other points.

The police flood control office said all major streets in the Hollywood area were awash.

More than 20 deaths had been attributed to the storm—one of the heaviest in the area's history—before today's violent downpours.

Nearly eight inches of rain had fallen in Los Angeles since the storm started last Wednesday.

Two children died Sunday under tons of mud. An elderly man fell into a 55-foot well shaft and was believed dead. Three other persons were presumed drowned.

Earlier in the storm a boy drowned in a flood-control channel and a woman was crushed to death by a tree that had been undermined by rain.

Police blamed 15 traffic deaths on the storm.

Dams overflowed over the weekend sending water into some homes and imprisoning other residents on isolated knolls. Scores of major intersections were closed.

Residents in Fontana, east of Los Angeles, reported a damaging twister kicked up by winds accompanying the rain.

More than seven inches of rain had fallen in Los Angeles. More than 20 inches fell at Juncal Dam in Santa Barbara County and several mountain areas reported 14 inches.

Season rainfall totals were running five inches above normal in the Los Angeles area, the first time they have been above normal in several years.

Dennis Ray Milne, 9, apparently died in his sleep when tumbling hillside muck burst into his bedroom in suburban Monterey Park.

Laurence Bennett Freed, 2½, died when a section of a cliff gave way and demolished the rear of his family's house in the Sherman Oaks district. Police advised nearby residents to evacuate.

James Fowle, 20, hasn't been seen since he launched a rubber raft on a flood-control channel in the Highland Park district Sunday. He is presumed drowned.

An innertube rider, John Clements, was swept away in a creek near Ventura when the tube overturned. John Reed disappeared.

Khrushchev Proposes 18-Nation Conference

Pilot, Wife Holding Secret Rendezvous

Intelligence Board Will Quiz Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — American U2 spy pilot Francis Gary Powers faces detailed grilling from U.S. intelligence agents when he completes a secret rendezvous with his wife.

Among questions awaiting the flier, free after 21 months in a Soviet prison, are: What really happened the morning of May 1, 1960, when he was downed deep inside the Soviet Union? How much did he tell the Russians about his mission?

Preliminary questioning presumably began shortly after the 32-year-old pilot crossed a Berlin bridge into American hands Saturday in a two-for-one trade for Soviet spy Rudolf I. Abel.

Official sources are not saying Powers is in military or government custody, but ever since he crossed a white line where Communist East Germany ends and West Berlin begins, a carefully contrived secrecy has cloaked his movements.

All the White House would say in a brief announcement Sunday was that Powers was home again and that he had been reunited with members of his family.

In a far-flung game of hide-and-seek dogged newsmen tried to find out for themselves where Powers and his wife, Barbara, were holding their reunion. Various leads pointed to Maryland's Eastern Shore, but the exact meeting place could not be pinned down.

The Central Intelligence Agency was believed to be setting up a board of inquiry to look fully into the Powers case. CIA Director John A. McCone will determine the board's composition.

Another figure in the unprecedented exchange arrived home Sunday. James Britt Donovan, the New York lawyer who defended Abel in his 1957 espionage trial and then negotiated his deportation in a trade for Powers and student Frederic Pryor, brought word still another American imprisoned in the Soviet Union may win his freedom. Marvin W. Makinen, 22, a student from Ashburnham, Mass., is serving an eight-year sentence in Kiev on espionage charges.

Donovan said: "I have what I believe to be assurance that if the better relations contemplated by this exchange should develop, the Soviet Union would contemplate extending clemency to Makinen."

The White House statement on Powers said that "as previously stated, he will be interviewed by appropriate U. S. government officials."

The United States has said he was a Lockheed test pilot working under a National Aeronautics and Space Administration contract when he was downed in a high-altitude photographic mission 1,240 miles inside the Soviet Union. It is generally assumed that the CIA directed the operation.

Pryor Returns From Red Jail

Asks No Propaganda Moves In His Case

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—"There is an opportunity to make a lot of cheap propaganda slamming East Germany—don't do it in my case," said Frederic L. Pryor, 28, Sunday on his return home after his release from a Soviet prison.

"After tomorrow, forget me," he said.

His graying mother, Mrs. Millard H. Pryor, beamed. "This is what I have been waiting for." She had been waiting five and a half months.

The scene was nearby Willow Run Airport with a New York-Detroit airliner a backdrop.

Less than 48 hours earlier Frederic had been released by East German Communists who had picked him up as an espionage suspect in East Berlin last Aug. 25. His mother and father, who learned of his detention three weeks afterward, had spent most of their time since in Berlin.

His father is chairman of Barnes Manufacturing Co. of Mansfield, Ohio, a pump-making firm. Frederic said he "assumed I was just a bonus in the deal" in which American U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was swapped for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel early Saturday morning.

The lean, tallish Frederic told newsmen he was "happy, grateful to be home." He said he had not been physically mistreated by the Communists.

Pryor was a graduate student at the Free University in West

Town Hall Program Thursday

Founder of Bronx Zoo Nursery To Speak Here

Mrs. Helen Martini, founder of the famous animal nursery at the Bronx Zoo, will present the fifth in this season's series of Town Hall programs Thursday at 8:15 p.m. at the Junior High School.

Mrs. Martini will screen a film and give a lecture on her experiences.

Wife of the head lion keeper at the zoo, Mrs. Martini began her unusual "family" when her husband brought home a lion cub born in captivity, whose natural mother would have nothing to do with him. The Martinis' success as "foster parents" resulted in a long procession of animals to and from their Bronx apartment. The eventual result was the establishment of the nursery.

The subject of numerous articles and the author of the book, "My Zoo Family," Mrs. Martini proved to skeptics that man-eating or man-shy animals could be raised to be as friendly and tame as puppies. Visitors to her apartment were sometimes startled to see a black leopard playfully stalking her through the rooms, or a gorilla tugging at her skirt while she was preparing dinner.

Admission to the program is free.

This season's Town Hall series will conclude March 27 when Eldon Griffiths, foreign editor of Newsweek Magazine, presents a lecture on "Question of the Week."

POWERS RETURNS—This photo of Francis Gary Powers was released by the White House, Feb. 11 with information that it was made a few hours after his arrival in the United States after his release from Russian prison, Feb. 10. No further details were given.

Salem Man Hospitalized

Six Persons Hurt In Road Accidents

Six persons were hurt, none seriously, in seven traffic mishaps on area highways over the weekend. The Ohio Highway Patrol cited six of the drivers involved.

Theodore Leyman, 18, of RD 4, Salem, is in fair condition at the Central Clinic with a fractured left arm and abrasions of the hip suffered in a one-car accident on the Western Reserve Rd., about eight miles northwest of Salem, at 3:55 p.m. Sunday.

The patrol said Leyman was driving west when his car ran off the right side of the road and struck a tree.

Three Millsboro, Pa., residents received minor injuries in a three-car mishap on Rt. 30 near Canons Mills at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Injured were Andrew Mazzeppa, 20, the driver, a bump on the top of the head; JoAnn Mazzeppa, 22, abrasions of the right leg; and Helen Rankin, 61, whiplash of the neck.

All three were riding in a car which was struck from behind by an auto driven by Domenico Mancino, 61, of Alliance. The patrol said the Mazzeppas had stopped behind a car operated by Raymond Mundell, 32, of North Ridgeville, who had stopped because of a flat tire. All three vehicles were headed south.

Mancino was cited for speed excessive for conditions.

A Beaver Falls, Pa., man and his wife were hurt in a three-car collision on Alternate Rt. 14, about two miles east of Washingtonville, at 4:10 p.m. Sunday.

Willard Brown, Sr., 58, the driver, was treated at Salem City Hospital for a laceration of the forehead. His wife, Grace, 54, suffered a bump on the head but did not require treatment.

According to the Patrol, Brown crashed into the rear of two cars which had stopped for a traffic light. He was cited for failure to stop in an assured clear distance.

The other cars involved were operated by Edward Shaffer, 46, of Beaver Falls, Pa., and Thelma Cipullo of Wilkinsburg, Pa.

Cars operated by Emmett E. Craft, 36, of Cadiz and Jane L. Masters, 45, of Canton collided at 4 p.m. Sunday in Kensington at the junction of Rts. 30 and 9.

The Canton driver was arrested for failing to obey a traffic signal. The Patrol said she pulled in front of Craft's south-bound car.

Refusal Of Plan by West Seen Probable

Disarmament Talks Appear Definite Possibility Later

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev has proposed an 18-nation summit conference on disarmament to meet in Geneva in little more than a month. The West seemed certain to turn down the proposal, though a later summit session seems a definite possibility.

The Soviet news agency Tass announced Khrushchev's plan today. The proposal was contained in a letter to President Kennedy delivered at the State Department Sunday morning.

In the letter Khrushchev proposed that the 18-nation disarmament conference—scheduled to begin March 14 in Geneva—start work at the summit level.

It was understood that the session would be confined to the single subject of disarmament, based on a set of principles agreed to by the United States and the Soviet Union at the United Nations last September.

What stand the United States and its allies, and perhaps a number of non-aligned countries, will take in response to the Khrushchev proposal will be determined in urgent consultations expected to begin immediately.

The White House and State Department declined any immediate comment as word of the reported new Khrushchev maneuver quickly circulated through the capital.

There appeared to be no likelihood whatever that Kennedy would agree to a meeting with Khrushchev and other government chiefs at the outset of the March 14 talks.

The President often has said there must be adequate advance preparations for a summit conference. He told a recent news conference he did not think a meeting with Khrushchev would

S. Viet Nam Plane Crash Kills 8 GIs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Searchers today found the burned and scattered wreckage of a Vietnamese military C47 transport plane that apparently carried 10 men—eight Americans and two Vietnamese—to death on a leaflet dropping mission Sunday.

Bodies of nine men were found with the wreckage in a mountainous area 80 miles northeast of Saigon. Rescue teams assumed the 10th also perished, despite a report that parachutes had been seen in the area.

All the Americans aboard were personnel of U.S. Army and Air Force. At least one was assigned to psychological warfare work in South Viet Nam.

Names were withheld.

It could not be determined immediately whether the two-engine plane had crashed or been shot down by Communist Viet Cong rebels operating in the area.

The leaflets being dropped carried the text of President Ngo Dinh Diem's lunar New Year message to the nation, which reviewed accomplishments of his government in the past year. The plane had been flying from Saigon to the coastal town of Da Nang.

It was the fourth crash in recent weeks of military aircraft carrying Americans. Previous plane casualties were two helicopters destroyed in mop-up operations against the Viet Cong and a twin-engine transport which crashed Feb. 2 while making a defoliation dry run. Defoliation planes spray thickly foiled areas along roads and railroad tracks to destroy the cover used by the Viet Cong for ambushes.

N. Waterford Bank Robber's Bid for Freedom Rejected

CINCINNATI AP — Describing the trial in U. S. District Court at Cleveland. The district judge in Cleveland denied the motion to vacate. "It must have seemed fantastic to the district judge, as it was to us, that a federal prisoner who was confined in jail for six months awaiting trial could conceal one and one-half ounces of gum opium on his person, avoid detection and keep enough on hand to drug himself to the extent that he was incompetent at his trial," the appeals court wrote in denying the appeal.

"It is almost unbelievable that if Malone had been drugged into incompetency, his condition would have escaped the attention of the presiding judge and those in attendance during the four days of his trial."

Malone is serving a 20-year term in the federal penitentiary at Alcatraz for his part in the 1954 robbery of the New Waterford, Ohio, Bank. Four robbers took $16,628 in the hold-up.

After an appeal on the grounds that the government allegedly forced witnesses to frame him was denied, Malone filed another appeal Sept. 13, 1960.

In this appeal, Malone contended he hid opium in his cell while waiting for trial and was drugged to the point of incapacity during

Here Are Facts, Figures About the Humidity Problem

Along about this time every year, the mailbag is laden with questions about excessive moisture in the home. For the letter writers, as well as the thousands of silent sufferers, here are some facts and figures about the humidity problem.

Moisture condensation results when the water vapor in warm air comes in contact with a cold surface. It is this condensation which causes paint to peel and wood to rot. (This is entirely aside from the health hazards of a continually damp living area.) The most visible evidence of the condition is the formation of drops or streams of water on the inside of a window. When the water vapor escapes through inside walls, it is not always apparent at first, but shows up later in such things as blister formation on outside paint surfaces.

In older houses, where there was a great leakage of air, excessive humidity was seldom a problem. Today, with such things as insulation, storm sash, weatherstripping and other measures designed to tighten the construction of a house, the water vapor can not escape and so condenses on the inside. The situation is made worse by the multiplicity of modern appliances which give off moisture.

Basic Principle

The principle to be remembering in attempting to correct the humidity problem is that the moisture must be permitted to escape—but not through the walls.

Where possible, this can sometimes be done merely by opening a window or two. But more often it is necessary to use exhaust fans in high-moisture areas, such as the kitchen, bathroom and laundry room. In area where furnaces are in operation all winter, a check should be made to determine whether there is a humidifier attached to the heating plant. If so, it should be shut off, since it is merely adding moisture to the air inside the home.

No Single Solution

In many cases, the installation of double windows, the insulation of walls where there is none and the use of vapor barriers may be necessary. There is no one solution to all high humidity problems. In a basement, for instance, good results usually can be obtained with the use of a dehumidifier, either the self-contained unit or the simple arrangements utilizing calcium chloride.

The owners of new homes should exercise patience as well as take precautions to eliminate moisture. New plaster and concrete throw off moisture for several months. New homes often have an excessive humidity condition for five or six months and then never have it again.

Bureau Gives Tips To Cut Heating Costs

There are many things any homeowner can do to cut heating costs through the long winter and bring more comfort to the home.

A list of practical suggestions is offered by the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau.

1. Check with your neighbors to see how your fuel bills compare to theirs. Of course, consider different living habits, number of rooms and comparative designs of the houses. If fuel costs for your heating system are out of proportion, it would be well to have a qualified contractor adjust the heating plant for most efficient operation. Often, the cost involved is more than absorbed through lower fuel bills during the rest of the cold season. Afterwards, the system should be checked and adjusted once a year to insure peak operation.

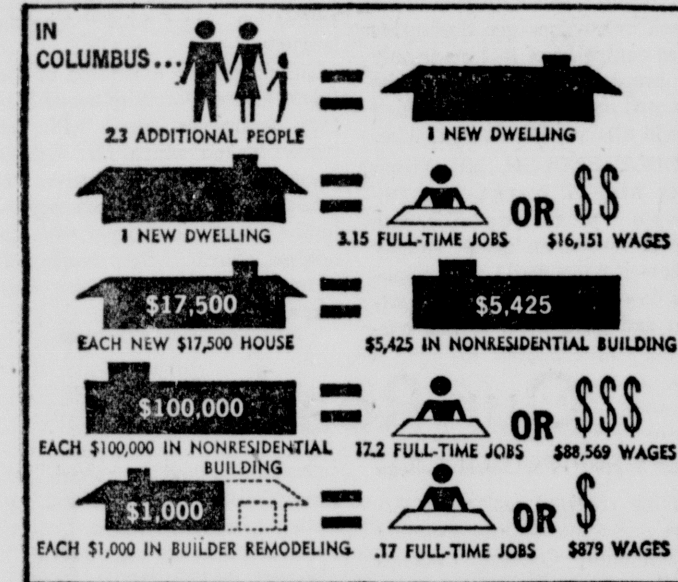

2. Adequate insulation is very important. Apply weatherstripping and caulking at joints and seams of windows and doors. Storm windows and doors can help considerably. And since warm air rises, be sure the attic is closed off.

3. Shut off all radiators, convectors or baseboards in unused rooms, and in rooms being aired.

4. When nobody is home, the thermostat can be set seven degrees below normal.

5. A considerable saving can likewise be effected by regularly turning down the thermostat seven to 10 degrees before retiring for the night.

6. Finally, close venetian blinds, pull down the shades or close the curtains or drapes at night. This additional insulation will prevent much heat loss through windows.

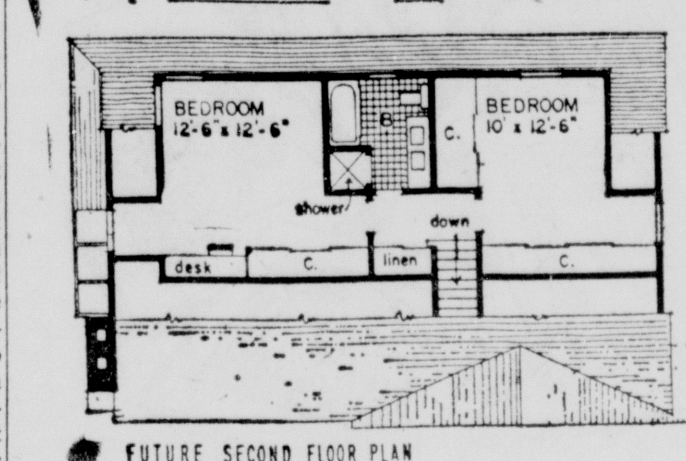

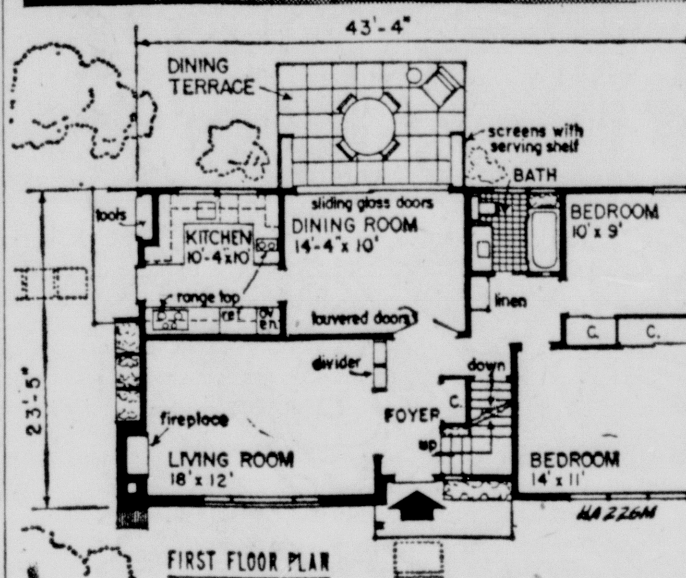

Importance of the Building Industry

A major factor in the growth of the American economy is the role played by building. In Columbus, Ohio (top chart), chosen as a typical city, every time 2.3 people are added to the population a new dwelling unit is built, on the average. That construction creates 3.15 jobs for a full year, representing $16,151 in wages. For every $17,500 house built, $5,425 is spent on schools, churches, shops, etc. Chart at left shows that payrolls and purchases of building contractors furnish direct employment for more people than the next five major manufacturing industries combined. Data is from Practical Builder magazine.

'Partial Walls' Serve Good Purpose In Modern Homes

Modern-day homes have many places where a "partial wall" can serve a good purpose.

Open floor plans, where areas for different activities blend into one another, give a house a sense of spaciousness and friendly informality.

But without sacrificing these advantages one can enhance the looks and function of an interior by adding a "partial wall."

Most often, the partial wall helps define area, but does not completely block off adjacent areas.

Even when a view-screening effect is desired, some openness may be provided at top or bottom to permit light to pass through and to keep some visual contact between areas.

A low partial wall might be wanted between kitchen and family room, allowing Mother to watch youngsters and to keep in touch with everyone as she prepares the meal. The top of this wall can act as a serving counter.

A high barrier is indicated between the kitchen and a more formal dining room. This arrangement spares guests and the family from seeing kitchen mealtime clutter. Still the wall need not go all the way to the ceiling.

The token separation of a low wall is appropriate between dining and living areas, if a divider is wanted.

A relatively low wall may also do well next to some stairways, where it doubles as a protective rail.

In the typical living room of newer houses where there is no entrance vestibule, a high wall can make up for the lack. Such a divider can screen both the view and drafts.

Partial walls for such various purposes can be devised simply by assembling a framework of 2x4 lumber and enclosing it with pre-decorated hardboard paneling.

The paneling may be applied with wallboard adhesive and nailed on clips over a framework or a solid base.

Variations in design can qualify divider walls for such extra duties as storage cabinets or planters.

tight places and for handling small parts.

Various Others

Among the basic types, you will find many variations. There are long nose pliers with curved jaws, electrician's pliers that have cutting edges only, not gripping jaws. There are compound action pliers that have a fixed pivot and jaws that are always parallel.

A popular item is the form of pliers that grips like a vise, locks on an object and stays there until you release it.

Don't ignore nippers—end cutting pliers that will snip wires or nails. Cutting blades are at right angles to the handles. With nippers you snip off a protruding nail flush with the surface or snap off that pesky bailing wire that sometimes comes on big packages.

Here's The Answer

QUESTION: We are considering having a home built and have about decided on a split-level house. Can you tell us whether a split level is cheaper than a regular ranch house?

ANSWER: This is an impossible question to answer because of the large number of variations which enter into the construction of individual houses. Split levels originally were designed to take advantage of sloping land on which regular houses could not easily be built, but these days they are being constructed on flat land as well.

There are many economies which can be effected in the building of a split level, one of which is the smaller foundation required. But this is sometimes offset by the fact that construction is a bit more difficult—and thus more expensive—because of the staggered levels.

Your choice should be based on (1) how much you can afford to spend; (2) whether you like the design and room arrangements of a split level; and (3) whether you can find the type of house you want at the price you want to pay and in the neighborhood where you want to live.

To Save Construction Money, 'Do It When Walls Are Open'

"There is a tide in the building of a house which, taken at the flood, leads on to the saving of money."

Shakespeare didn't say it exactly that way. But if he had been a builder, he might have. Today the builders say it this way: "Do it when the walls are open."

"When the walls are open" is that period in the construction of a new home that comes after the framing of the structure and before the plaster, wallboard or other interior wall material is in place. It is possibly the most important time of all for the prospective home owner, because it is then that much of his new home's convenience and good looks must be built carefully into the open walls.

FOR INSTANCE, if wiring for lighting, appliances and telephones is not adequately placed at this point, it must be done later at much inconvenience and additional expense. It seems that a family having a house built would know what it wants in a new home. But the records show that what a family wants at the time of construction is different from what it wants one, two or a few years later.

When the walls are open is the time to be sure there is sufficient electrical power and enough circuits to take care of future as well as present needs. Think ahead about the possible needs for air conditioning, power tools and appliances. Make sure the circuits are balanced properly to meet your needs. And see that plenty of outlets are installed. It is surprising how often a family that has a house built to order will find the need for extra outlets after living in the home a few months.

ALL LIGHTING NEEDS should be considered—and advantage can be taken of recessed or indirect lighting. Since the ceiling is open when the walls are open, this is the time to take care of overhead lighting in places like bedrooms and recreation rooms. By wiring up for ceiling fixtures, you can perhaps avoid the cost of an extra lamp or two.

Plan ahead with your local telephone company to see that concealed wiring is installed, not only where you plan to have a telephone now but where you might have one in the future. Just as with electrical wiring, make sure that enough outlets are provided, as so often there is a need for expansion of phone service to meet changing family requirements.

Wiring for hi-fi or stereo systems does not have to be exposed, either, if advance planning is done. Junior or Jane may not be interested in hi-fi or stereo right now, but they may be a few years from now. Of course, if money is no object, then you can forget everything we've said.

Fill In Cracks In Fine Wood Floors

There are two schools of thought on what to do when you have a wood floor with wide cracks between the floor boards. The modern school says to fill the cracks with any sort of filler you can get your hands on and then cover the whole works with linoleum or some similar type of hard surfaced flooring. The other school of thought says to fill the cracks with a filler that matches the wood and then refinish the entire floor.

If you have just a plain old wood floor that hasn't got anything much to recommend it, you might just as well cover it over with a good quality hard surfaced flooring and forget the cracks once and for all.

Recipe For a Take-Over

Paris policemen, among the best in the world, presumably were not surprised when they suddenly found themselves under attack by Communists, instead of Algerian rightists.

They had been fighting Reds much longer than they had been fighting Algerian stand-patters. To them the radical left and the radical right are one and the same as far as tactics are concerned.

Both are trying to take over the government so they can rule France to suit themselves. Neither could hope to come to power by parliamentary means. Both are hopeless minorities as far as the vast majority of Frenchmen are concerned.

But, being absolutists in thought and action, both dream of doing by violence what neither could do by persuasion. They are aware of the possibility of overthrowing President Charles De Gaulle by stirring up so much disorder that they can blackmail France into getting rid of him.

Their deal would be to quell their own disorder in exchange for De Gaulle's political scalp. Had it not been for the iron-willed general, extremists would have captured France by this time. He saved the republic by offering a middle course of action.

NOTHING IS more despicable in the eyes of extremists than middle courses. They lead to security and order, instead of instability and violence. This is the one point on which the far right and the far left always can agree. It explains why they so often are found together in the pursuit of opposite goals. They both hope to get where they are going to strike by terror.

The world is watching France.

A great republic may be swept into the dust bin of history if extremists attack French moderates with enough ferocity to ignite a revolution.

Wherever extremists are using these tactics there is the same issue—in the new nations of Africa, in Latin America and even in Europe, where the struggle between violence and moderation is ages old.

IT CAN BE detected even in the United States, where extremists have gone berserk only a few times—the Whiskey Rebellion of 1794, the Civil War of a century ago, the uprising in Little Rock over the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling against segregated schools a few years ago.

The recipe for an attempted takeover is first to foment violence.

This is what the world is witnessing in France.

It would matter little whether the takeover was attempted by the extreme right or the extreme left; there would be no more liberty for Frenchmen if it succeeded.

Pyrrhus In a Business Suit

One of the unexpected stories of the day, in view of the well-publicized troubles of Chrysler Corp. with top-management disagreements, is about the corporation's ability to come through 1961 with blazing profits.

Associated Press relayed the information Friday that the nation's third largest automaker had reported a profit for 1961 of $11.1 million or $1.24 a share, the result of the second highest fourth quarter earnings in its history.

This was the more remarkable because as late as last Sept. 20 Chrysler was running a loss but recovered its losses and earned $31.6 million in the last three months of the year.

While this was going on in the big auto company, the nation's airlines, which had been riding a wave of prosperity as recently as 1959—when Chrysler was deep in the throes of trouble—topped $2 billion for the first time in history and also piled up a deficit of $30 million.

This, too, was one of the most unexpected stories of the day.

THE AIRLINES were zooming into a deficit while Chrysler Corp. was groping its way into a profit. What accounts for the disparity between an industry that never had it so good before yet lost money and the component of an industry whose troubles seemed to have booted it into success?

There is, significant agreement on the reason, both for Chrysler and the airlines, did it by expansion.

In 1956 they started a $3 billion jet equipment program. It was the wildest extravaganzas of keeping up with the Joneses ever seen in transportation. Management officials went into it, moreover, with their eyes open. They could only shrug and explain they had to buy jets or run the risk of losing out to competitors buying jets for the same reason—fear of competition.

They didn't dare to think of the possibility passenger traffic wouldn't grow as rapidly as the carrying capacity of their huge new jet carriers—but it didn't. It has continued to grow and is still growing but it may take years for it to catch up. Many jet planes are flying with as many as half their seats empty.

ANOTHER ROUND of keeping up with the Jones is ahead for the airlines—supersonic air transports that will fly at 2,000 miles an hour and will make obsolete today's subsonic jet transports.

The supersonics are expected to sell for $25 million apiece, more than four times what must be laid out for a subsonic.

Pyrrhus was the famed military genius who beat the Romans after sustaining such heavy losses that he said afterward, "One more such victory and we are utterly undone."

He now wears a business suit and runs an airline.

This We Would Have to See

One of the persuasive arguments that is supposed to bowl over opposition to federal aid for private and parochial schools, whether elementary, secondary or advanced, is that federal money would be spent only for the physical plant and therefore it wouldn't be the same as using federal money for classroom education.

In the case of parochial schools, in other words, the federal money would not be used for the inculcation of religion, which it is conceded would be contrary to the doctrine of keeping church and state separated. It would be used only for buildings in which religious could be inculcated into students.

Is there actually any financial invention that could keep federal money from being used for inculcating religion in a school that made a practice of inculcating religion? If so, we'd have to see a working model to believe it.

To be sure, a check from Washington could be endorsed over to a separate fund for construction only. Every conceivable precaution could be taken to keep the federal money from trickling into the hands or pockets of anyone connected with religious inculcation.

But is anyone ingenious enough to believe this wouldn't aid the institutions that received it, just as truly, as it would aid schools where religious inculcation was not a sensitive point? After all, aid is not given to buildings; it is given to schools.

The absurdity of thinking federal money could be earmarked and kept in quarantine is the second-best argument for ditching the whole idea of federal aid. The best argument is that it would destroy local aid—and even the profligate federal government is in no position to bear the entire cost of the nation's vast educational system.

Well, a Gal Can Dream, Can't She?

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

The "highest" administration circles appear to be putting the outer limits on wage increases this season at about $5 per week per man. Apparently that is what the White House privately believes will be the national pay pattern for the heavy industries.

And that will be the total package. This means cash, welfare, unemployment insurance costs, all extra benefits — the fringes with the surry thrown in.

This runs to a total increase of some 12 cents an hour. If the package runs to 13, maybe 14 cents more, they won't call out the Marines nor appoint Gen. Walker head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

But a real demand — not just a bargaining bid of footwork — or a strike for a bigger package will be considered inflationary and a repudiation of the President of the United States by the union involved.

THIS, IN EFFECT, is the impact of the White House message — and I presume it is from Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg, too — to David McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America.

If either he or the steel industry executives were prone to hysterics, which they are not, there would be more than muted noises out of Pittsburgh — where the formal negotiations already are under way quite privately.

McDonald's high command wants more for its 950,000 members — out of which some 450,000 are immediately involved in the big basic steel making mills.

The prediction here is that the Steelworkers eventually will accept the 12-to-14-cent ceiling.

But the industry people are asking — who is going to give it to them? It is reported that Roger Blough, chairman of the board of U.S. Steel, told the President the firms cannot afford to increase their costs by even a penny an hour.

HOWEVER, that's the inside news from Pittsburgh. The real bargaining, as always, takes place in Washington and downtown New York.

From those sources the word is that the steel companies probably will move along to a counter-offer — after a while — of some $3.20-a-week. Or a ceiling of eight cents an hour.

This reduces the battle to a span of four cents an hour — the difference between 8 and 12 cents.

But industrial civil wars have been fought over a penny an hour. However, not under circumstances such as the administration has created. True, both sides are ready and willing to do battle.

They did in 1959. Same high commands except for steel labor's new attorney, David Feller, who has replaced Arthur Goldberg. Mr. Feller is a brilliant lawyer and tactician.

He's from Harvard. Former editor of the Law Review there. Also chief law clerk to the chief justice of the Supreme Court from 1948 to 1949. He was at Arthur G's side during the last steel struggle. So both groups are well matched. But the match has an umpire at the net, if I can mix a couple of metaphors. Namely John Kennedy.

THE PRESIDENT can crack down on both sides without appearing to interfere in the free bargaining between labor and management in steel. This he can do through his 21-man Labor-Management Advisory Committee.

All day last Tuesday, this group discussed national wage price policy — and how to keep both from being inflationary. Their decision was—no price-wage freeze. Their policy, as reported to him, was "self-restraint in the national (or common) interest."

The first actual test of such self-restraint and national compassion will come in the steel conflict. If it gets tough, if demands are too high and resistance too strong, if the insiders sense trouble, the committee can whack both sides publicly for the President.

It meets again on March 6. That will be three weeks after the foes meet with a rousing fanfare. If that doesn't bring a quick peace, the President will talk about compulsory arbitration. That should do it — the talk, I mean.

But at the moment nobody — but nobody — is happy.

Symbol of Perfection

Wilson's Typewriter Returned to White House

This is a story about a typewriter that has just come to the White House for exhibition to the public. To understand its significance, one must ask how many persons out of the many millions who use a typewriter every day can do so over the years almost never make a mistake in typing.

Yet this is the feat which a president of the United States—Woodrow Wilson—performed, and the evidences of it are to be found in the many historic documents that he personally typed and which are on file in the Library of Congress.

President Kennedy received the typewriter at a little ceremony the other day to which he graciously invited this writer, who last autumn had written Mr. Kennedy suggesting that, inasmuch as he was endeavoring to place on exhibition at the White House mementoes of every president, it might be desirable to get the Wilson typewriter from the American Red Cross.

Sold as "surplus property," the typewriter had come into the possession of the late Adm. Cary T. Grayson, President Wilson's physician, who had loaned it to the Red Cross. It was found stored in an attic, and Gen. Gruenther, president of the Red Cross, made the formal presentation to President Kennedy in a brief ceremony attended also by Adm. Grayson's sons.

Mr. Kennedy displayed some facsimiles of President Wilson's typing, including the original of the famous "Fourteen Points," which were proposed as a basis for ending World War I.

Mr. Wilson wrote virtually all of his messages and important statements on his own Hammond typewriter—a brand which hasn't been manufactured for many years now.

It was the precision of Mr. Wilson's mind which made extraordinary the many letters and memoranda and statements which he personally typed. He knew exactly what he wanted to say and, though he typed slowly, he was accurate to the point of perfection. The same precision was to be noted in his speech making.

He almost never prepared a speech in advance and during his entire campaign of 1912 made only one prepared address, which he delivered on Labor Day and which he said afterwards, he didn't like.

ODDLY ENOUGH, Mr. Wilson never had to correct his impromptu speeches. The late Charles Swann, an expert stenographer—if not a world champion—took down the speeches in shorthand and gave them to this correspondent and other members of the press almost always without a single correction and usually without even submitting them to anyone for revision. No such handling of a president's speeches has been heard of since.

Mr. Wilson didn't have any "ghost writers," though it is probable that some state documents which contained technical material were prepared for him by Cabinet officers. Certainly, after he became ill in 1919, his messages to Congress were prepared by various members of the Cabinet—a practice, incidentally, begun by George Washington and continued by many presidents since. For a president cannot possibly spend his time researching the many points that have to be covered in messages or statements on a great many subjects.

But on the main issues of the day, domestic and international, Mr. Wilson himself wrote all his declarations on his Hammond typewriter. He actually composed on it, in their entirety, most of the important diplomatic communications that were sent to the German government by the State Department prior to our own entry into the war.

He acknowledged daily many a communication from members of the cabinet in short memos that he personally typed.

UNFORTUNATELY, he considered most of them to be routine, and didn't make carbon copies. Hence a lot of these documents have been lost, though a unit known as "The Papers of Woodrow Wilson," headed by Prof. Arthur S. Link of Princeton University, is researching them at the Library of Congress and is gathering them together for eventual publication, along with other data about President Wilson's two administrations.

Mr. Wilson also was an expert at shorthand but he used this primarily to jot down notes as he thought out in advance the topics he would cover in a speech.

These shorthand notes, however, were very brief, and were mainly confined to headings or points to be discussed for he did not like to prepare the text of speeches in advance.

Mr. Wilson was amenable to suggestion from others but the language was almost always his own. There was a preciseness about his use of words, whether in speaking or writing, which proved him to be a master of expression in the English language.

The placing on exhibition at the White House of facsimiles of his historic documents, along with the typewriter on which Mr. Wilson personally typed them, gives to millions of sightseers an opportunity to see on paper, in its original form, the work of a mind disciplined, precise and courageous.

Urges Support For Local College

Having received copies of legislation regarding the establishment of Community Colleges, University Branch and Technical Institute, I feel that probably the general public might be interested in learning just what the difference is.

The Amended Substitute Senate Bill No. 518 - Section 3354.01, Article C, states: "Community college means a public institution of education beyond the high school organized for the principal purpose of providing for the people of the community college district wherein such college is situated the instructional program defined in this section as 'arts and sciences' and may include the 'adult education' program as defined in this section, not exceeding two years duration."

This would leave control of the college in the hands of the board of trustees.

Amended Substitute Senate Bill No. 519, Sec. 3355, Article B, states "University branch" means an academic program administered by a state or municipal university in a community other than the community wherein is located the main campus of such university and affording to the students in such program academic credit corresponding to that afforded to the students on the main campus upon satisfactory completion of comparable courses of instruction.

This is out as far as Columbia County is concerned because Section 3355.02 Article A states: "The legislative authority of any municipal corporation having a population of not less than 50,000 as determined by the last decennial census, etc." We have no cities in our county of this size.

However, No. 519, Section 33-57.01 Section A states: "Technical Institute District means a political subdivision of the state and a body corporate with all the powers of a corporation or of one or more contiguous counties having together a total population of not less than 100,000 as determined by the last federal decennial census preceding the establishment of such district, and organized for the establishing, owning, and operating a technical institute within the territory of such district."

No. 519 Section 3357.01, Section D: "Technical institute means a public institution of education, post high school, for the principal purpose of providing for the people of the technical institute district a program of technical instruction."

I think we have the basis in Salem for some sort of a school of higher education. Personally, I favor the Community or as it is better known the Junior College plan. This would include the arts and sciences and I believe if adopted would be of benefit to all college students rather than just those interested in technical studies and I believe would have far more public support. However, this is only the idea of one person.

If I may be so bold, I would like to suggest to the Salem Chamber of Commerce as the civic leaders of our community that they select a commission from all walks of life, religious, fraternal, business, manufacturing and labor to study the possibilities of a school of higher learning for Salem.

Such a school would benefit everyone. Let us remember that while such a school would naturally have a small beginning, yet Fenn College in Cleveland and Youngstown University both started as night schools in the YMCA not too many years ago.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A recent column dealing with men who dine alone left your readers with some mistaken notions.

Such men are not necessarily antisocial sourpusses. It could be that they are just plain fed up with the sound of voices and wish to enjoy a few blessed moments of silence.

I am qualified to speak on this subject because I am one of those individuals who must talk to people (or listen) all day long, either on the telephone or in person.

Lunch alone is a treat. I look forward to it. It affords me an opportunity to relax. I can read if I feel like it — or just indulge in my favorite sport — people watching.

It is unfair to suggest that lone diners are oddballs and I hope you will print this letter to set the record straight — ONE WHO EATS ALONE AND LIKES IT.

Dear One: Here is your letter — and a good one it is, too. The next letter is from a kindred spirit. Perhaps you two ought to eat together.

Loneliness Ruined

Dear Ann: You and your big mouth. This noon I went to my favorite little restaurant for lunch. I like to eat alone and all the waitresses know it.

Today a waitress shoved your column in my face and said, "See, Ann Landers said you should have company."

Two seconds later she seated an insufferable windbag at my table.

He handed me his business card and tried to sell me insurance. I put the newspaper in front of my face but he didn't take the hint. I gobbled my lunch and left.

If you need a "cause," Ann Landers, why don't you do something for those unfortunate neurotics who can't bear to be by themselves for five minutes. THEY are the ones who need help. — SELF SUFFICIENT.

Safe and Sane

Dear Ann: I'm a high school junior, almost 17, and I need some advice on love. I can't talk to my mother about this because she's too old to remember what love was like. She is 42.

For five straight months I dated Rick. He was the "most" to say the least. Thrillville, no less. We necked a lot but I managed to keep him within the city limits, if you get what I mean.

After awhile he got pretty demanding and every time we had a date we'd wind up arguing about the same old thing. The struggle was getting to be too much of a problem so I returned his ring and sweater and told him goodbye. He is dating other girls now and I am dating other fellows.

The boys I date are really much nicer than Rick, and they are no threat to my purity. But I miss Rick like crazy. Am I nuts? — LOVE, LTD.

Dear Ltd.: No, you're not nuts, just human. The rogues and scoundrels often have a fatal fascination, just as forbidden fruit can be especially alluring.

But the smart girl tells herself it's not worth it. Congratulations for having the sound judgment and the strength of character to choose the right course. You won't regret it.

Confidentially

TO END OF THE ROPE: Tie a knot and hang on. You didn't think it was going to be all honey and sugar, did you? Like I keep saying, "Marriage is for adults only."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

St. died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leland Slates, at 12:15 this morning following a four-month illness.

Born in Carrollton Feb. 2, 1882, she was the daughter of Sam and Nora Maple Brown. She was a resident of Minerva since 1907.

She attended the First United Presbyterian Church.

Survivors are her husband, Harry T.; three daughters, Mrs. Slates, Mrs. J. T. Rafferty of Santa Rosa, Calif., and Mrs. John G. Morrow of RD 1, Minerva; one son, H. M. (Bud) Smallwood of RD 1, Minerva; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Gotschall-Hutchinson Funeral Home, with Rev. Milton R. Davis officiating.

Friends may call Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the funeral home.

when his boat failed to negotiate rapids of the Santa Clara River. Mudslides pushed in the windows of actress Tuesday Weld's home and splattered into her swimming pool. Actor Richard Boone fought the oozing brown mess to save his home.

Residents evacuated 20 homes in Frazier Park, a community halfway between Los Angeles and Bakersfield, shortly before a dam spillway gave way and sent water coursing into six homes.

Water from another dam roared five feet deep through Big Tujunga Wash in the San Fernando Valley. It blocked the only exit road for 25 hillside families.

Warm temperatures and unusually heavy rain turned some mountain snowpacks—the West's water storage vaults—into flood waters over the weekend, routing hundreds from their homes in Idaho and Wyoming.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho declared a state of emergency and National Guard, Red Cross and civil defense units were called to help.

There was some flooding in Utah, too. The melted snow roared down U.S. Highway 40 at Heber east of Salt Lake City and closed the highway.

Rivers and creeks overflowed in the Riverton-Lander area of central Wyoming and forced more than 300 families to seek emergency shelter.

Temperatures in the 50s and rain loosened an avalanche in a canyon east of Afton in western Wyoming and killed an Afton dentist, Dr. Max H. Stock, 34, who was looking over a potential new ski area.

The Portneuf River in southeastern Idaho flooded on the southern edge of Pocatello. The river washed out two bridges at the Lava Hot Springs resort south of Pocatello. Idaho National Guardsmen rescued 36 patients from a rest home and took them to hospitals in Pocatello.

Melted snow from the hills inundated the town of Bancroft east of Pocatello. Water was six feet deep in spots.

More than 300 families abandoned homes in the Idaho Falls area Sunday night. Heavy rain, hail and severe electrical storm hindered the evacuation.

The Lincoln Highway—U.S. 30—was washed out east and west of Pocatello.

A part of the Union Pacific Railroad main line was flooded out east of Pocatello. The east-bound City of Portland streamliner was delayed seven hours.

Weather Bureau officials said the ground, frozen hard by a January cold wave, failed to absorb the melting snow, sending the water cascading into lowlands.

With the Patients

Pamela Lloyd, one-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Lloyd of Deerfield, is in good condition in Salem City Hospital where she was admitted Sunday for treatment of a possible head injury sustained when she fell from a table at her home.

operated by Guy R. Laib, Jr., 35, of Youngstown, who had stopped for a traffic light.

Cars driven by Hazel Graham, 52, of RD 2, Leetonia, and Victor Stanciu, 49, of Sebring, sideswiped on a curve on Rt. 14, a half-mile west of Washingtonville, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Leetonia woman was arrested for driving left of center and for failing to stop following the accident. Both cars received moderate damage.

Thomas G. Cameron, 16, of RD 5, Alliance, was cited to juvenile court for driving left of center, following a two-vehicle accident on the Hartley Rd., about one mile south of Rt. 62, at 1:45 p.m. Saturday.

Cameron's pick-up truck sideswiped a car driven by Dwight S. Brugger, 29, of Harrison, on the crest of a hill, causing moderate damage to both vehicles, the Patrol reported.

Pryor was a graduate student copy of a doctoral thesis he was writing on East European Communist trade. It contained facts and figures gathered from many sources, but Pryor insisted none of them were of a military nature.

Pryor described the unofficial charge against him as "economic espionage," but said he never was shown any official warrant or indictment.

UCT To Make Plans For Officer Election

Members of Salem Council, United Commercial Travelers of America, will hold their monthly business meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Home, with senior counselor James L. Johnson presiding.

Plans will be made for the election of officers at the March meeting and for their installation at a ladies night party March 31 when Grand Counselor James Meador of Greenville, O., will be honored guest.

Louis C. Moushey is in charge of the social committee to serve the lunch following the business meeting.

Bishop Werner To Speak at Lisbon Church Dedication

LISBON — Bishop Hazen G. Werner, resident bishop of the Ohio area of the Methodist Church, will deliver the dedication address and lead in the dedication service Sunday at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist Church, Rev. William L. Brown, pastor, announces.

The program will mark the liquidation of the debt incurred in construction of the church in 1950.

An organ recital open to the public will be presented by Marshall Bailey of Salem at 2 p.m. Vocal numbers will be rendered by Miss Mary Lodge and Byron Griffith.

The first Methodist Church building was located on S. Jefferson St. In 1828 a church building was erected on the square. In 1888 the need for a larger building resulted in the construction of a new edifice on the southeast corner of Market and Washington

Sts. It was dedicated in 1889. The church was remodeled in 1925, but on Feb. 28, 1944, a fire destroyed the building. Services for the next few years were held in the auditorium of David Anderson High School. In 1949 the cornerstone for the present structure was laid.

The first service was held Jan. 20, 1950, in the basement and the first service in the sanctuary was held on World-Wide Communion Sunday Oct. 1, 1950. The church has a membership of 630.

Serving on the dedication committee are Robert Leggett, chairman; Miss Lois Armstrong, Mrs. Adam Rudabaugh, Mrs. Albert Webber, Clarence Ball, Charles Pike and Alfred Smith.

ingly, "I've seen them before." Indonesians were annoyed because the United States permitted chartered Dutch airliners with uniformed troops aboard to refuel on U.S. territory en route to West New Guinea. Last week students stoned the U.S. embassy here in protest.

The United States has banned such flights but commercial Dutch airliners carrying troops in civilian clothes can still land on U.S. territory.

Kennedy will have several meetings with President Sukarno—whom he has met before—and other government officials, including anti-Communist Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, the national security minister.

On the eve of Kennedy's arrival the Indonesian army sent 10,000 jungle fighters to eastern Indonesia, apparently to start infiltration of West New Guinea.

The United States favors negotiations between Indonesia and the Netherlands in hopes of reaching a settlement.

Kennedy was carrying a letter from his brother, the President, to Sukarno but the contents were not made public.

This is Kennedy's fourth major stop on his trip. After Japan, he had an unexpectedly prolonged stay in Formosa before continuing on to Hong Kong where he had planned a weekend rest.

But he and his wife refused to let up in the pace they set in Japan. They visited a teeming resettlement area of Hong Kong Sunday and the attorney general skipped rope with children, helped pass out relief noodles to the needy, sampled free milk and cookies, fired off scores of questions and shook hundreds of hands.

Later he cruised around Hong Kong island in a U.S. Navy barge and wound up his day by putting on a pair of scotch plaid trunks and going for a swim with Mrs. Kennedy in Repulse Bay.

be advisable under present conditions.

However, if the Geneva disarmament group can make progress toward translating general principles of disarmament into concrete programs of action, there is reason to believe Kennedy might be willing to go to a summit meeting at a late stage of the negotiations. The Geneva group is to report to the United Nations June 1.

The new Soviet proposition reportedly was delivered when Mikhail N. Smirnovsky, ranking official at the Soviet Embassy, met Sunday morning with Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the State Department. Smirnovsky reportedly gave Rusk a seven-page letter from Khrushchev addressed to Kennedy.

Rusk immediately got in touch with the President, who was spending the weekend at Middleburg, Va. Late in the afternoon Rusk called in the ambassadors of Britain, France, Italy and Canada.

The Khrushchev letter is said to have been sent in reply to a proposal which Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan made to him last Thursday. It called for the Geneva meeting to be opened by foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

In effect, Khrushchev raised the bid by suggesting that the 18-nation session be opened not by foreign ministers but by heads of government.

The Soviet leader is reported to have told Kennedy that the issues involved in disarmament were far too serious to be left to "bureaucrats"—by which he made clear he meant the foreign ministers. The set of disarmament principles on which the United States and the Soviet Union agreed last fall calls for various stages of supervised disarmament aimed at totally dismantling national military forces and arsenals.

The United States at the time pointed up at the United Nations the failure to agree on the critically important requirements of an international inspections system. The inspection problem, in the western view, poses the major obstacle in the way of the forthcoming Geneva negotiations.

Khrushchev's letter to Kennedy reportedly made no direct reference to nuclear test ban negotiations.

New Waterford Fire Loss Nil Last Year

NEW WATERFORD — Charles Harrison, chief of the village volunteer fire department, reported that there was no fire loss in the village last year.

He attributed this to "good housekeeping on the part of home owners and businessmen."

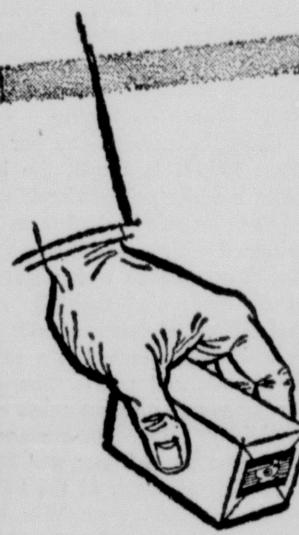

In the rural area served by the department, the fire loss amounted to $7,000.

Firemen answered 15 calls during the year. Two were for home fires; one to a fire in a garage; 10 were grass fires, and two calls were false alarms.

Mrs. Lanny K. Brunner

Capel-Brunner Nuptials Held At Baptist Church

Rev. R. J. Hunter read the service that joined Miss Shirley Mae Capel, daughter of Mrs. Burt C. Capel and the late Burt C. Capel of 927 Fair Ave., and Lanny K. Brunner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brunner of Damascus, in marriage. The double ring ceremony took place in the First Baptist Church at 7:30 Saturday evening before an altar banked with palms, gladioli, mums, baskets of mixed flowers and twin seven branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert L. Capel, the bride wore a white princess style gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace trimmed with pearls, scoop neckline, long sleeves with unpressed pleats fashioning the full skirt and train. Her imported silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of crystals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a camellia corsage.

The matron of honor was Mrs. J. Reid Scott, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Miss Kay Powell of Homeworth, Mrs. Richard Hendricks of Greenford, Mrs. Robert Capel and Miss Dorothy Eastek. Flower girls were Miss Jill Capel and Miss Leisa Jo Scott.

The attendants were dressed in satin dresses with dome skirts and boat necklines. They wore short veils attached to pearl crowns. The flower girls were dressed in white with colored cummerbund and carried baskets of white and tangerine carnations. The dresses were made by Mrs. Fred Capel II, sister-in-law of the bride.

Jon Zeigler was the best man. Ushers were Don Brunner, brother of the bridegroom, Bruce Capel, brother of the bride, Walter Bauman and Laird Bowersock of Damascus.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk organza dress over taffeta with a white camellia corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a turquoise blue dress with blue accessories and a camellia corsage.

A reception was held in Fellowship hall. The bride's table laid with an Italian cut lipen cloth was centered with a four-tier wedding cake decorated with pink roses and crystal bells and topped with a satin wedding bell. Cut white flowers were in crystal bowls and crystal holders and tapers completed the table arrangement. Serving were Mrs. Gene Ringer of Canton, Miss Cheryl Fromm, Mrs. Walter Bauman of Damascus and Mrs. Jon Zeigler.

Miss Donna Stoffer registered 200 guests from Damascus, Salem, Canton, Alliance, Greenford and Youngstown and California. The bride is a graduate of Salem High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Goshen Union High School and is employed at the Electric Furnace while attending the University of Cincinnati.

The bride chose a cream floral knit sheath dress with dark brown accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet for her honeymoon to an undisclosed destination.

The bridegroom's parents entertained the rehearsal party at Petrucci's Restaurant Friday evening. Gifts were presented to the attendants.

Hanoverton OES Lodge Has Meeting

HANOVERTON — Mrs. Robert Ernst, worthy matron, presided when Pleasant Valley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening.

Announcements were made of invitations to receptions for Mrs. Rex Huffman, grand conductress, Feb. 16 at Junction City; Thomas Drake, worthy grand patron, Feb. 24 at Ripley, and the exemplification of the degree work at the March meeting.

Mrs. Ernst read a poem prior to the observance of obligation night, with Worthy Patron Harold John presiding. A brief report of the recent School of Instruction held at Salem was given.

Mrs. Roy Paisley, associate matron, appointed Mrs. Frank Grubb and Mrs. John Brenner as lunch committee chairmen for the March meeting.

Mrs. James Starkie, district deputy grand matron, gave her official report, commending all officers and the chapter as a whole on the presentation of the work.

The chapter room was decorated with small baskets of floral bouquets and the lunch table with appointments for Valentine Day. Mrs. Meda Maple served as committee chairman.

Home Circle Club Meets In Greenford

GREENFORD — All members were present Thursday afternoon when Mrs. S. J. Bennett entertained the Home Circle Club.

Mrs. Harold Blakely was a guest. A feature of the afternoon was a Valentine gift exchange. Mrs. Raymond Knopp will entertain in March.

Thirty women were in attendance when the Lutheran Dorcas and Lydia Circles met at the Church Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. B. Williamson was the leader. The subject for the evening was on the merger of four of the Lutheran churches in the United States, the American Evangelical Lutheran Church, Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church and the United Lutheran Church of America, becoming under one name the Lutheran Church of America.

Mrs. James Justice, Mrs. William Blum, Mrs. Vernon Feicht, and Mrs. Earl Slagle presented a skit and Mrs. Sam Sommers also took part in the program. Pastor Richard Mackey led a question and answer discussion.

The Ruth Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bush Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Leetonia Will Hold Sports Event March 10

LEETONIA — Former Leetonia High School Football Coach Bob Gibson will head the program as the principal speaker when the Leetonia - Washingtonville Athletic Boosters Club holds its third annual all-sports banquet at Orchard Hill School Saturday, March 10.

Final plans are being made for this annual event which previously was held to honor the football team, but for the last three years has included all sports in the high school.

Gibson, currently head back-field coach at Bowling Green University, was coach here in the early 1950's with Joe Bernard.

Joe Bernard, a former Leetonia by who played varsity ball for the Leetonia Bears during his high school days, will be a special guest for the banquet. Both Gibson and Bernard took over the coaching assignment at East Liverpool, after leaving Leetonia.

Leetonia High School Principal George Hanna will serve as master of ceremonies. Tickets can be secured at Moose drug store, Blackwood's news service, and Leetonia Hotel and in Washingtonville at Savage's Sporting Goods or from any Booster Club member, announced Al Stumpo, chairman.

PVT. RICHARD E. KYSER,

Lisbon Social

The Lisbon Music Study Club presented for the public its annual "Parade of American Music" program Friday evening in the First Presbyterian Church.

Beginning with the hymn of the month "Holy Spirit - Truth Divine" choral groups sang under the direction of Mrs. Blanche Neill, with Mrs. Theodore Greener at the piano.

Paul Kosower, student at Lisbon High School, played a cello solo a prelude from "Suite an Cienne" by Henry Hadley, with Mrs. Vernon Duke as his accompanist.

The choral group of the club directed by Mrs. D. H. Hepburn sang "Getting To Know You" and "In the Still of the Night."

Misses Kay Ann Hayes, Shirley Rubino and Nancy Ramsey, High School students, presented flute numbers, with Mrs. Duke accompanying.

"Onward Christian Soldiers" and a negro spiritual, "Sit Down Servant" were sung by a High School vocal group directed by James Kennedy.

Miss Camille Firestone presented two violin solos "Banjo and the Fiddle" by Kroll and "On the Nile" by the late Charles T. Perry. She was accompanied by Mrs. Greener.

Karen Riggle, a High School student, sang "Alice Blue Gown," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hepburn.

Miss Mary Lodge and Mrs. Graham Kearney served at the tea table.

HOOP TALK

By ... Double Dribble

Greetings People!

I trust you were satisfied with the Quakers' performance against the Boardman Spartans. Although it wasn't the outstanding game of the year, it was a fairly well played contest ... and with a little practice, they may eventually learn how to make foul shots.

Tuesday will find the Quakers back in their own gym against Conroy's whoops, I mean DiGregorio's Golden Bears. (More commonly known as Youngstown East, Iva). On Friday night, Youngstown South's Warriors (tsk, tsk, they're still at it) took apart the Golden Bears. This gives East a 6 and 10 record to bring to Salem. In this case, however, records and ability seem to mean nothing since last second buckets make all the difference in the world. Look for a real good ball game. (You might find it in Salem's gym).

And while we're on the subject of Salem's gym, I must make mention of something just recently brought to my attention. The seating. Some of the Senior High students claim they are being short changed on seats. As you no doubt know, the east side (not to be confused with Youngstown East, Iva) of the gym is completely reserved seats. The west side, according to these students, is split like so: two sections for the visiting team, two sections for Junior High and grade school fans, and one, that's right, one, section for 700 high school students. What it boils down to is this, the students of the Senior High School do not have enough seats. Consequently, some end up standing outside the doors to watch, some just don't attend because they know there is no room, and the rest squeeze themselves into the "Sardine Section." Somehow, this doesn't seem quite fair, since it is a high school sport ... Any suggestions?

Other Observations: John Cabas doesn't like being in 7th place in the A.P. poll. Honest, John, we gave you an 8th place vote here.

Dear Iva: I'm sorry my humor (?) isn't to your liking, and as you suggested, I will be very happy to send you a letter each week explaining all comments to you. As for the reason the coach of the 8th grade team waits so long to clear the bench with a 30 point lead, I don't know. But I suggest you ask him. He probably has a very good reason, since he is a reasonable person. By the way, is your boy on the bench or on the floor during most of the game?

Sportsmanship reached a new high during the East Liverpool game. Only one fan got punched in the mouth by a player. There was no retaliation from the fan. (Thanks go to Rusty Tomlinson on his valiant effort in this).

An area sportscaster got lost on his way to the Boardman game. I suggest a subscription to The Salem News, since the directions to this game were printed in the Thursday edition. Also I suggest he read the pre-writes with a little more feeling.

That's all for this time. I shall return on the 16th with a few (?) comments on the Dayton Dunbar game.

Bucks Face Michigan After 91-66 Defeat of Minnesota

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's powerhouse figures to bolster its Big Ten lead this week as Ohio's 41 collegiate cage clubs offer a 56-game program.
The unbeaten Bucks, fresh from a 91-66 trouncing of Minnesota Saturday night, hit the road for two tilts this week. They go against Michigan at Ann Arbor tonight and against Michigan State at East Lansing Saturday.
The Wolves have a 4-12 record (2-4 in the conference), while the Spartans are 2-7 in the league and 7-10 overall. Neither figures to hamper the route to the throne room for Coach Fred Taylor's team which has won 23 straight conference games over a three-year span, the last 32 at home, and boasts an 8-0 league mark and 18-0 overall.
Ohio had no trouble with last-place Minnesota. Jerry Lucas hit 14 of 15 from the floor for a Big Ten record, scored 34 points and picked off 16 rebounds, and that was about it. The big two-time All-American has scored 421 points and grabbed 331 rebounds in 18 tilts.
Cincinnati's NCAA champs rolled over North Texas, Tulsa and St. Louis last week to make it 8-2 in the Missouri Valley—just behind leading Bradley's 8-1.
The Bearcats, who must win the loop crown to get another crack at the NCAA laurels, entertain George Washington tonight and Houston Friday in non-league play as they polish up their trapezoid for next Monday's game with Bradley at Cincinnati.
This is the do-or-die week for Ohio Wesleyan as it goes for the Ohio Conference crown. The Bishops can clinch a share by beating last-place Heidelberg Wednesday, but they must defeat Baldwin-Wallace Saturday to be certain of an undivided throne.
Bowling Green, sullied 70-59 by Toledo Wednesday, had a cliff-hanger with Marshall Saturday but won it 73-70 by making 13 of 14 free throws while the Herd was missing 4 of 14. Each team had 30 field goals. The Bee-Gees

JACK BE NIMBLE ... JACK BE QUICK!

The physical fitness of our youngsters—boys and girls—has declined so sharply that they're nowhere near as nimble, as quick, as active as youngsters of only a generation ago.
We must get our children back in tip-top physical condition! We must make them "doers" instead of sitters and spectators!
The President's Council on Youth Fitness has developed a program that will help make them able-bodied. It calls for at least 15 minutes of vigorous activity every day for every child as part of the physical education period. In schools that have carried out this program, pupils have improved remarkably in strength, endurance and agility.
Insist that your child's school put more emphasis on physical education. Act at your next PTA meeting!

Cage Clowns Register 78-71 Win Capacity Crowd Witnesses 'Magicians' Upend All-Stars

A jam-packed crowd was on hand Saturday night in the Salem High School gym to watch the famed Harlem Magicians down a team of Salem All-Stars from the Class A league of the Memorial Building 78-71. The game was sponsored by the Salem Jaycees.
The Magicians, wearing unorthodox digit-and-a-half numbers on their jerseys, lived up to their reputation as basketball clowns, with some unbelievable ability thrown in.
They performed such stunts as a baseball game on the court, a football game with a nearly successful field goal, and a number of other maneuvers that kept the crowd in laughter throughout the game.
A girls tumbling team, led by Susan Mathews, an experienced tumbler and majorette with the Salem Senior High School band, entertained during halftime intermission.
Participating were Vickie Greene, Gayle Seroka, Connie Borrelli, Mary Anne Cosgrove, Linda Huffer, Peggy Huber, Susan Janovec, Amy Donnelly, Sandra Adams, Debbie Dowd, Lois Domenetti and Sue Bateman.
Jim Summer led the All-Stars attack as he swished the nets for 26 counters. Burt Patterson and Bill Davidson were second high for the locals with 12 each.
Others playing for Salem were Fred Ackerman, Dick Youngpeter, Jack Alexander, Frank Shagnot and Jim Barnes.
Poland's Freshman squad edged the local ninth graders 32-29 in a preliminary game before the feature contest.

Sub Goalie Aids Rangers' Win Streak Cincinnati Mailman Wins Bowling Title

By The Associated Press
Goalie Gump Worsley has recovered from his elbow injury and is ready to return to the New York Ranger nets. But it looks like substitute Marcel Paille may not let him.
The Rangers, locked in a battle with Detroit in the only closely contested race now in progress in the National Hockey League, hastily summoned Paille from Springfield last Sunday when Worsley was injured.
They haven't lost since, and have climbed from fifth to a two-point lead over Detroit in the fight for fourth place, the last playoff spot. Importantly, Paille hasn't allowed a goal in the final period of any of the four games.
The Rangers were trailing by one goal going into the final period Sunday night when the husky French-Canadian goalie again shut the door and New York came up with a 5-3 triumph over Boston.
Montreal, streaking toward another regular season championship, rallied for a 4-3 verdict over slumping Chicago and Detroit blasted Toronto 5-0 in the other games.

382 STUDENTS DROPPED
OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Poor grades caused 382 Miami University students to drop out after the fall semester, says Registrar Max B. Rosset. Rosset said 222 of the drop-outs were freshmen and that the total number was smaller than last year.

Bradley Seeks To Pad Lead Against Drake

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
A showdown week in college basketball opens tonight, with a host of upper echelon teams due to meet head-on before the final shot is fired next Saturday.
The Southeastern Conference furnishes tonight's key attraction—Mississippi State at Kentucky. The defending champion Bulldogs are out to capture a share of the conference lead but will find the going rough against the streaking Wildcats, who have won 16 in a row counting Saturday night's 83-60 romp over Mississippi. Kentucky is 8-0 in the league and 17-1 overall while Mississippi State is 18-1 and 7-1 after beating Tennessee 91-67 Saturday.
Ohio State, pace-setter in the nation and in the Big Ten, is at Michigan tonight. The Buckeyes (18-0) tied a record Saturday with their 23rd straight Big Ten victory as Jerry Lucas hit 14 of 15 field goal attempts and scored 34 points in a 91-66 rout of Minnesota.
Bradley (16-3) will be out to pad its Missouri Valley lead, entertaining Drake, while second-place Cincinnati (19-2) has a non-conference home game against George Washington. Bradley went out of the league Saturday night and barely nipped Louisville 80-79 on Chet Walker's last-ditch shot. Cincinnati beat Tulsa 70-52. These two rivals meet a week from tonight at Cincinnati.
Another conference leader, Colorado of the Big Eight, plays at home tonight against Oklahoma. The Buffs kept ahead Saturday

Increase In Hunt, Fishing Fees Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fees for Ohio's various hunting and fishing licenses should be raised, the League of Ohio Sportsmen declared Sunday as it concluded its 54th annual convention.
Delegates to the three-day meeting here adopted 20 resolutions and reelected their officers in a business session on the final day.
Among the resolutions, the group urged the legislature to increase the present hunting and fishing license fee from $2 to $3 and to boost the deer hunting permit from $5 to $7.50.
The league also urged a special hunting fee of $1 per day be charged for hunters using Division of Wildlife land or waters that have been stocked or where special facilities are available.
Another resolution, in the same field, asked that legislators reduce the age limit for persons requiring fishing licenses from 18 to 16 years.
Reelected president of the big organization was Melvin C. Balke of Cleveland. Two others were reelected—P. M. Jones of Ravenna, secretary, and Ben Drayer of Columbus, treasurer—and Dr. L. J. Darr of Oak Harbor was named vice president for the first time.

Crestview Sidetracks Greenford Title Tie 68-55

Losers Must Defeat Lowellville For Crown

Crestview High denied the Greenford Bobcats at least a tie for the Inter-County League basketball title as they stunned the loop-leaders 68-55 on the loser's hardwood Saturday night.

A win for the Bobcats, who are now 4-1 in the league and 10-6 over-all, would have sent them into their game with second-place Lowellville Saturday night with at least a share of the crown and a possible undefeated loop mark.

However, now the losers must meet the Rockets, also 4-1 in the league, on an even keel at Greenford this weekend. Crestview, now 4-2 in the loop and 16-2 in all games, is in second place.

Mighty Jim Kress, the Rebels' high-scoring 6-7 junior, featured in the upset with a 24-point performance, with Lee Heaton and Raymond Brown also in double figures with 19 and 11 points respectively.

Forward Rich Arnold and guard Dave Tye led the Greenford attack with 15 markers apiece, while teammate center Bob Cook was right behind with 14 tallies.

A 24-point outburst by the Rebels sewed up the victory in the fourth quarter after both squads fought nip-and-tuck in the first three periods. Crestview was on top 16-14 at the end of the first frame and 33-32 at halftime, but Greenford surged ahead 47-44 heading into the last eight minutes of play.

The game was the last on Crestview's regular season slate. The Rebels will now meet the winner of the United-Salineville game Feb. 21 in the Columbiana County Class A tournament championship game Feb. 24 at Beaver Local. The Rebels were awarded a bye in the tourney since they possessed the best record of the three county teams.

Greenford will end regular play this weekend, with a tilt against Salineville at home Friday night and the important contest with Lowellville Saturday night.

However, the Bobcats also have an opening round Mahoning County Class A tournament game with North Lima Wednesday at 7:20 p.m. in the Struthers Field House.

In Saturday night's preliminary game, the Crestview Reserves edged the Greenford Jayvees 32-29.

Palmer Wins Phoenix Open, Plans Rest

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Golf's No. 1 miracle-maker, Arnold Palmer, is going to play only one tournament in the next five weeks, much to the pleasure of his fellow pros.

The long-driving Miami, Fla., pro has said for some time he needs a rest. After his performance in the $35,000 Phoenix Open many rivals agree.

Palmer won his second straight Phoenix title with a 72-hole score of 269, just one stroke off the course record. His nearest competitors were 12 strokes off the pace.

The victory margin was also the largest ever for a PGA event. "My driving was by far the greatest reason for the big margin," Palmer said as he pocketed the $5,300 top money. "Those long iron came through for me several times."

The rest can't hurt him financially either. The 32-year-old golden boy is golf's third greatest money winner with total earnings of $275,754.76. He is only $7,200 short of Gary Middlecoff's career total and $9,000 behind Doug Ford.

It's been all Palmer the past two weeks. Before Phoenix he won the rich Palm Springs Classic.

He tucked away the Phoenix tourney with a five-under-par 66, his eighth sub-par round in his last nine. He never was seriously threatened after his opening 64 at Phoenix.

Sharing second-place money at 281 were Jack Nicklaus, the 1961 national amateur and intercollegiate champion, Bob McCallister, Don Fairfield and Bill Casper. They won $2,300 each.

Leetonia Rips Sebring 66-52 For 7th Win

Coach Len Batcha's Leetonia High cage team rolled to its third straight Tri-County League victory and evened its loop mark at 6-6 with an easy 66-52 decision over hapless Sebring on the loser's floor Saturday night.

The win was also the seventh in 16 outings for the Bears, while the Trojans fell to 0-12 in the league and 1-15 over-all.

Leetonia took a substantial 20-8 first period lead and was never headed, moving the margin to 39-26 at intermission and 54-40 heading into the final eight minutes of play.

Senior Russ Lehman and junior Hank Nemenz each collected 15 points in sparking the winning cause. Also high were teammates Frank Guerrier with 12 tallies and Paul Conrad with 11.

Junior forward Rick Burns featured for the losers with 16 counters, while teammate Jack Vernon added 13 markers.

In the preliminary contest on the two-game card, the Sebring Reserves turned the tables with a 42-26 victory over the Leetonia Jayvees.

Both schools will wind up their loop and season schedules this weekend with Leetonia meeting Louisville at home Friday night and traveling to Poland Saturday, while Sebring entertains East Palestine Friday and is at Minerva Saturday.

Knock Off Minerva 74-64

Clippers Face Showdown With Poland Friday Night

Columbiana's Clippers tuned up for their showdown battle with the Poland Bulldogs this Friday night by knocking off the Minerva Lions, 74-64, Saturday at Minerva.

The Clippers must upset undefeated Poland on Friday, then measure Louisville in the regular season finale the following night if they are to keep their faint hopes alive for a share of the Tri-County League title.

Poland could wrap up the crown by whipping Columbiana. If the Bulldogs should miff that opportunity, they could put the title away by beating Leetonia on Saturday.

Columbiana goes into this, the final week of action, with a 10-2 league record while Poland has copped all 12 of its Tri-County loop tilts, including a hard-fought 59-52 win over Columbiana on the Bulldogs' home court four weeks ago.

Columbiana had four men hit in double figures in Saturday's high-scoring fray at Minerva. The Clippers' top scorer for the season, senior Ken Gallagher, led the way with 17 markers. He was followed by Jerry Cross with 15, Jim Ward with 13 and Paul Schultz with 12 in a well-balanced attack.

Bob Wunderle and Larry Simms combined for 45 points in a losing effort for Minerva. Wunderle hooped 25 and Simms caged 20.

Minerva gave Coach Rich Berryman's crew a rough battle for two periods before the Clippers broke open the fray in the second half. The Lions held a 15-13 advantage after the first eight minutes. Columbiana moved on top 34-31 at halftime and opened up a 52-44 advantage at the end of three periods.

The defeat evened Minerva's league record at 6-6. The Lions, who travel to Lisbon for their next encounter Friday night, have an 8-8 overall record this season. Columbiana will take a 13-3 mark into their game with Poland Friday.

Warriors Post 12th Victory

West Branch Smashes Lake Win Skein 88-57

West Branch High School's Warriors, swishing the nets for 44 points in the last half, completely stunned Lake High 88-57 and ended the Blue Streaks' winning streak at four games at Damascus Saturday night.

The win was the 12th for West Branch in 15 outings, while Lake fell to 8-8 for the season.

Coach Joe Tucker's Warriors exploded in the third and fourth periods after the game had been close in the early stages. The winners led 17-15 after one period, and 44-31 at halftime. West Branch increased the margin after three frames to 66-39.

Senior forward Dan Dennis was high scorer for the winners with 30 points, although teammates Chuck Wilson came through with 23 markers and Dick Wallace 18. Dick Shier featured for Lake with 12 counters, while teammates Earl Fader dumped in 11 and Bill Schory 10.

In the preliminary game on the evening's program, the West Branch Reserves made it a perfect night with a 51-33 lacing of the Lake Jayvees.

The Warriors will play three more games in regular season play before entering the Alliance Class AA sectional tournament. Tuesday night the cagers will travel to Wellsville, with games at home Friday and Saturday nights against United and Beaver Local respectively.

Tigers Chalk Up 12th Victory

Springfield Local Waltzes By Beaver Local Quintet 80-48

Springfield Local of Mahoning County rolled to its 12th victory in 17 outings with an easy 80-48 triumph over Beaver Local at Petersburg Saturday night.

The Beavers fell to their 12th defeat in 16 games this season. Dick Burgard, a 6-1 junior, sparked the winners with 21 points as three of his teammates also hit in double figures. Sophomore Ron Sonedecker meshed 15 points, senior Ted Slagle added 12 and senior Jim Allen 11.

Beaver Locals' senior forward Gary Bernhar featured in the losing cause with 16 tallies, while teammate John Baker chipped in 10 points.

Springfield broke out to a 22-12 lead after one quarter and was never headed as it built a half-time margin of 49-20 and 56-30 after three periods.

The Tigers face an odd situation this week when they meet Western Reserve Wednesday night in the opening round of the Mahoning County Class A cage tourney at the Struthers Field House at 8:40 p.m., but do not finish their regular season schedule until Saturday night at North Lima.

Beaver Local has two more games remaining in season play, meeting New Cumberland at home Friday night and traveling to West Branch Saturday night. The Beavers, who will be playing in the Class AA sectional tourney at Struthers or Youngstown South, will be paired against an opening round opponent tonight at the official drawings in Youngstown.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Most Epilepsy Cases Need Care

Q—A year ago our three-year-old daughter had a convulsion. We took her to a hospital where they had to give her oxygen. Then they did tests and told us she had mixed epilepsy. We were given medication but a month later she had another convulsion. I increased her medication and she was well again until six months ago when she had three convulsions. We again took her to the hospital.

4-H Club News

Kensington Little Women

Officers were elected when the Kensington Little Women's 4-H Club met Tuesday at the Christian Church annex, with nine members and three advisers present. Officers elected were Rachel Bolen, president; Johanna Bishel, vice president; Carol Mingus, secretary, and Carol Merriman, treasurer.

The next meeting will be Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Try Try Again

Rhonda Hill was elected president when 32 members of the Try Try Again 4-H Club met Tuesday at St. Jacobs Church. Other officers elected were: vice president, Carol Bailey; secretary, Cynthia Painter; assistant secretary, Linda Cook; treasurer, Brenda Wilhelm; assistant treasurer, Betty Rudebeck; news reporter, Brenda Wherry; devotional leader, Dena Holloway; recreation leader, Carol Shade; song leader, Candy Hill and assistant song leader, Virginia Harmon. Advisers for the club are Kathryn Bailey and Mrs. Ed Wilhelm.

Officers will meet at the home of Kathryn Bailey Feb. 13 at 7 p.m. to make arrangements for the coming year.

The next meeting will be Feb. 20 at 7 p.m.

RETURNS CHILD

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Anne Sandage, was to return to William H. McGuffey School today after a three-day absence that made her mother sign a child stealing warrant against Anne's father.

Mrs. Irman Sandage told police Sunday she had received a telegram from Curtis N. Sandage, the former husband, saying Anne would return today. She said Sandage claimed he was only "enjoying reasonable visiting rights" with the child.

A Word From . . .

HERON'S
Down at the Old Country Store

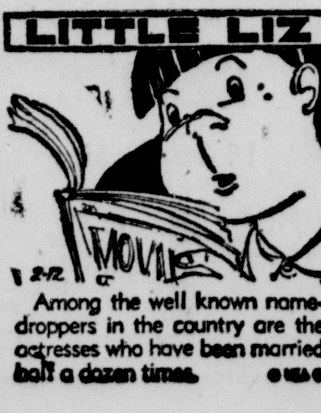

On The Columbiana - Lisbon Road.

We have a lot of fun out here at The New Version of the Old Country Store. We have retained much that was good and added all of the new that we thought was worthwhile. No store in this part of the country has so much to offer its customers.

We don't figure our profits in dollars but in the pleasure we get from doing things for others.

Questions—Answers

- Q—Has a speaker of the House of Representatives ever been elected president?
A—Yes, James K. Polk.
Q—What did Benjamin Franklin prove by his famous kite experiments?
A—The identity of lightning and electricity.
Q—What is the meaning of the name Oklahoma?
A—It means "land of the red people," from two Indian words.

This and That

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Three U.S. presidents have been killed in office, and only one man is known to have been at the scene of all three assassinations.

This grim and unwanted distinction belonged to Robert Todd Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln's oldest son. He was present when his father was mortally wounded in 1865, and by a strange double quirk of fate also arrived on the scene shortly after James Garfield was shot in 1881 and William McKinley in 1901.

Here's another irony: A headquarters building for training rookie firemen now stands at the site where Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lantern, reportedly starting Chicago's most disastrous fire in 1871.

Remember the Good Samaritan of Biblical fame? He hasn't done so well in terms of posterity. Only 345 Samaritans now live in the Holy Land.

What is the world's largest church? St. Peter's basilica in Rome. It is 460 feet wide, 632 feet long, covers an area of nearly six acres.

Our quotable notables: "The more things a man is ashamed of, the more respectable he is."—George Bernard Shaw.

How's your sweet tooth? Americans now eat about 17 pounds of candy each year. One big chain reports 41 per cent of its annual candy sales are made in a total of 29 days before six holiday periods—Easter, Christmas, Valentine's Day, Mothers Day, Thanksgiving and Halloween.

The ancient Chinese regarded licorice as a medicine helpful in the treatment of coughs, colds, old age—and ugliness.

Education isn't easy: It's as difficult to stay in college as it is to get in. Only three out of five college freshmen remain to win their sheepskin.

Overhead in a Hotel Edison elevator: "My daughter bought a really modern home. Everything is controlled by switches—except the children."

The U.S. Labor Department predicts that by 1970 at least one out of three jobs will be held by women.

Few realize the flu epidemic of 1918-19 was among the most disastrous in history. It afflicted half a billion people, took some 25 million lives.

Life in La Belle France: The typical French housewife spends 23 per cent of her household budget on wine. Some two million Frenchmen drink two or more bottles of wine daily. In the peak year of 1956 too much tippling brought death to 20,289 persons.

Security: The ambition of most people today seems to be to find a safe niche with a big corporation. Only one-third of the work force is hired by firms having fewer than 50 employees.

Wisecrack of the week: "You're getting over the hill when you no longer learn history—but remember it."

One price of a civilization on wheels: Automobiles kill and cripple more U.S. children than any disease.

It was E. W. Howe who observed, "A bad woman raises hell with a good man, while a good woman raises hell with only one."

WINS HOUSE SEAT — Ray Roberts of McKinney, Tex., receives news of his election to the House seat vacated by the death of House Speaker Sam Rayburn. He defeated R. C. Slagle.

Motorist Complains Car Won't Go Fast

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — A motorist drove into a garage outside Odense and complained his car wouldn't go as fast as usual.

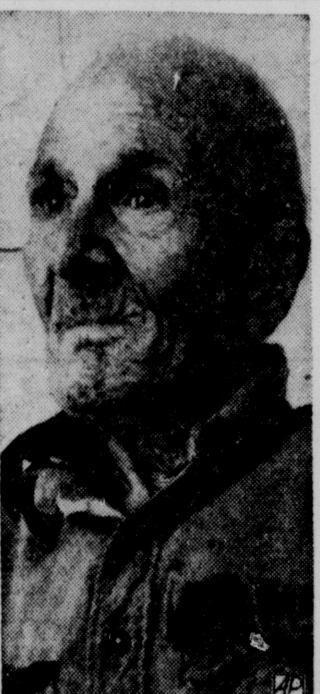

The attendant found another car hanging on to the rear bumper. It had caught on when the motorist maneuvered out of a parking space two miles away.
